Medium Drawing; black ink on paper

Description Drawing of low-rise apartment buildings on Farmington Avenue in Hartford, Connecticut. The one on the left has a pair of stone lions guarding the entrance, a large cornice, patterned brick, and balconies. The building in the center has quoins on the corners, a cornice, and covered balconies. The building on the right has quoins on the corners and a peaked roof. There are other buildings that recede into the distance. All of them are flying flags. Small trees and bushes are also depicted.
