

Basic Detail Report

Title Cast-Iron-Front Buildings, Hartford

Date 1976

Primary Maker Richard Welling

Medium Drawing; black ink and colored markers on paper

Description Drawing of buildings on Asylum Street in downtown Hartford, Connecticut. On the left is the edge of the Goodwin Building. In the center is 235-237 Asylum Street, with a government surplus store on the ground floor. Next to it is 241 Asylum, with 247-257 Asylum on the right. There are pedestrians on the sidewalk and automobiles on the street in front of the buildings.

Dimensions Sheet (height x width): 13 5/8 x 21 1/4in. (34.6 x 54cm)