

Basic Detail Report

Title Facade of Society for Savings, 31 Pratt Street, Hartford

Date 1908

Primary Maker J. C. Dexter Photo Company

Medium Photography; gelatin silver print on paper

Description Stone and brick bank building. Entrance arches are supported by Corinthian pilasters. Windows on second level have round arches and ornate carved surrounds. The name "Society for Savings" is carved above the arches.

Basic Detail Report

Plaques on either side of the entrance read: "Society / for / Savings / Pratt Street." A striped awning is on a window in a side alley. An ornate iron fence and gate screen the alley entrance. A sidewalk is in front of the building.

Merchandise, including women's clothing, is displayed in shop windows at the far left. Signs on the building read: "The Randall Studio" "C.S.Hills & Co."

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 9 1/16 x 7 7/8in. (23 x 20cm)