Title Bulkeley Bridge Construction: Track Work near Western

Abutment, Hartford

Date before 1907

Primary Maker Unknown

Medium Photography; gelatin silver print on paper

Description Railroad tracks are on what appears to be a temporary wooden bridge. Additional tracks run along an embankment in the background. Utility poles and a station are nearby. Men and boys sit on railroad ties in the foreground near a large piece of machinery that may be a pile driver. A stone arched bridge is at the right near additional construction equipment, including a crane. The Connecticut River is at the left.
