

Basic Detail Report

Chaplain Henry Clay Trumbull

The rustic pulpit and chapel were built

Title Chaplain Henry Clay Trumbull at his rustic pulpit, Richmond,

Virginia vicinity

Date between 1864 and 1865

Basic Detail Report

Primary Maker Reverend Henry Clay Trumbull

Medium 1 print ; 21 x 14 cm.

Description Man with a beard and mustache wearing military uniform stands behind a pulpit or lectern constructed of unfinished logs with the bark on them.

An American flag and a framed portrait of Abraham Lincoln are in the background. Part of the background appears to be a painted backdrop representing the interior of a tent. Typewritten inscription beneath image:
"Chaplain Henry Clay Trumbull / The rustic pulpit and chapel were built / by Army Engineers below Richmond, Va., in / the winter of 1864-65."

Dimensions 21 x 14 cm.