Basic Detail Report

Title Josephine Seymour Toy and Elsa Welling dressed for a recitation

at Unity Hall, Hartford

Date about 1900

Primary Maker William B. Lloyd

Medium Photography; albumen print on paper on cardboard mount

Basic Detail Report

Description Two young girls in white dresses and veils pose in a domestic interior. One girl has a crescent moon on her veil. The other has stars on her veil and dress. Houseplants, including a pot of ivy in a plant stand and a potted palm, are in the background. Candlesticks, a Chinese porcelain bowl, a mug and a vase are on a mantle. A bulls-eye mirror, a framed oil painting and other pictures are on the walls. There appear to be prints in a portfolio in a stand. A lamp and a silver loving cup containing roses are on a table at far right. Oriental rugs are on the floor.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 9 7/16 x 7 7/8in. (24 x 20cm)