Basic Detail Report

Title Unidentified Church

Date 1929

Medium Photography; gelatin silver print on paper

Description A small gothic revival church is surrounded by scaffolding and appears to be under construction. The building has a square tower and one-story wing attached. Ladders lean against the roof of both the church and this smaller building. Lumber and other building materials are piled on the ground. A sign reads "Allyn Wadhams / Builders." Frame houses, other buildings, and what appears to be a garden plot are in the background. An automobile is at the left. Snow is on the ground.
