Basic Detail Report

Title Gold colored locket with hair

Primary Maker Harriet Newell Rogers Starr

Medium metal, glass, hair

Description Oval locket with red-gold finish. The hinged lid is etched with a landscape and is currently loose from the locket. The main body of the locket has a feather decoration around the edges. The central oval is a receptacle with dark brown hair looped inside and a currently broken piece of glass covering the opening. The locket was designed to be worn as a pin. It may represent mourning of a loved one.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions: (Height) 1 x (Width) 1 5/8in. (2.5 x 4.1cm)