Description Two photographic portraits of William J. Quish made by Wise, Smith & Co. of Hartford, one of which is in color. Large and a small black and white photograph of William J. Quish Sr. receiving his son's air medal in absentia. Six black and white snapshots of Quish and his friend Rice at their base. Rice has written on the back of several of them. Since many are of Rice himself, he could not have been the photographer.
