Basic Detail Report

Title Indian-style play shirt

Date about 1910-1920

Primary Maker Clark Chester Huntington

Medium cotton twill, metal

Description Khaki colored collarless shirt trimmed with yellow twill tape over the shoulders and at the bottom of the sleeves. From the yellow tape on the front breast is red, yellow and blue twill fringe; along the collar, on the left front placket, hem of the shirt and from the yellow ribbon on the sleeves is red fringe, also made from twill. The metal buttons are of a floral design. Inside the shirt is printed 2200-7. This is the same as the shirt worn by Clark Huntington in two photographs of him dressed up for play. May be entirely homemade.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions: (Neck-waist length) 19 x (Shoulder width) 14in. (48.3 x 35.6cm)