Basic Detail Report

Title White corduroy dress

Date about 1911

Primary Maker Walter Treadway Huntington

Medium cotton corduroy, cotton

Description White corduroy dress or smock for a boy, with a shawl collar coming to a point at the front and extended down the back, decorated with machine-sewn embroidery. Within the shawl collar is a stand-up collar decorated with herringbone embroidery. The dress has two tucks down the front, and belt loops at the side seam. The sleeves are pleated into the cuff. The dress buttons along the left shoulder and the shawl collar on that side is also buttoned in place. Seen worn by Walter Huntington in a photograph accompanying the dress.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions: (Length from neck to hem) 21 1/8 x (Shoulder width) 10 3/4in. (53.7 x 27.3cm)