Basic Detail Report

Title Color postcard of the Hurlbut-Dunham House

Date 20th century

Primary Maker Bond Press

Medium photograph on paper

Description Color photographic postcard of a two-story brick house with central portico and cupola. The Hurlbut-Dunham House, located in Wethersfield, Connecticut, was built in 1804 from profits of the first voyage around the world by a Connecticut ship captained by John Hurlbut.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions: (Height) 4 x (Width) 6in. (10.2 x 15.2cm)