

Basic Detail Report

Title War Office of Gov. Trumbull

Date 1880-1910

Medium albumen print on cardboard

Description Photograph of a gambrel-roofed, shingled building with an off-center chimney . Stone path and steps lead to a simple framed two-panel door with one window on either side, and a third window to the right. One small, bare tree is in front of the building. A printed border surrounds the image. Identified as The war office of Governor Jonathan Trumbull in Lebanon, Connecticut, used during the Civil War and now a museum.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions: (Height) $10 \frac{7}{8} \times$ (Width) 13in. (27.6 $\times$ 33cm)

Photograph: (Height) $6 \frac{3}{4} \times$ (Width) $8 \frac{3}{4}$ in. (17.1 $\times$ 22.2cm)