Description Four Chinese people, three men and a woman, sit outside on the steps with a dog. The men are dressed in western style suits with neckties. The woman wears a light colored dress with light stockings and heeled shoes. The man at the front right is Tun Yen Liang, a graduate of Hartford Public High School with the Chinese Educational Mission program. The younger man at top right is his son Che Chiang Liang, who lived with the Martin Welles family in Hartford for a time.
