

Basic Detail Report

Title Hartford Circus Fire: Men Carrying Debris or Victims

Date July 6, 1944

Primary Maker Helen Tobacco

Medium Photography; gelatin silver print on paper

Description Group of several men, including at least one African American man, carrying what appears to be a long board partially covered with a tarp, probably victims of the fire or debris. Several men look on, including a policeman wearing a uniform. There are circus wagons and trailers in the background.