Basic Detail Report

Title Intersection of Asylum and Trumbull Streets, Hartford

Date 1977

Medium Photography; color slide on plastic in cardboard mount

Description Slide depicting an intersection in downtown Hartford with traffic lights, looking west up Asylum Street from Trumbull Street, with the Hartford Civic Center to the right. The Isle of Safety sits in front of the building on the left, which also contains a McDonald's. There is a large mural painted by Michael G. Borden on the side of the building. A sign on the front of the building facing Asylum Street reads, "FRANKS / Steaks / Sea Food / CHOPS." In the distance the Goodwin Hotel is visible at the left, and the Bond Hotel at the right. Presumably taken during a Thursday is a Work of Art event.
