Basic Detail Report

Description Official United States Navy formal dress/dinner uniform worn by Matthew Woods. Uniform consists of a (a) blue jacket, (b) blue pants, and (c) black belt. This uniform would be worn on special occasions. It is the equivalent of a tuxedo and would be worn during winter. (a) The jacket is a blue wool blend, semi-peaked blazer with narrow lapels, and the back tapered to a point. There are three 35-line, Navy eagle, buttons down each side of the front, with a front closure held in by black plastic buttons placed inside each front-facing secured with a yellow elastic closure. The proper right and left cuffs feature two gold stripes and a gold star. There is a leather band affixed to the interior lower hemline. The jacket has an interior breast pocket on the proper right side front-facing. There is a, "Thorngate Uniforms, Inc." label on the interior right front-facing. (b) The pants are size 44 Regular. They are constructed of blue wool blend and have fore and aft creases, belt loops, and a zippered fly front closure.

There are four pockets, two side pockets, and two back pockets. There is a "Patriot" brand label on the interior rear of the pants. The interior waistband is embroidered with the word, "Patriot" and a firearm, the pattern repeats. (c)

The belt is constructed of black cotton with a brass clip, and a brass tab on belt tip. The gold belt clip indicates the wearer is an officer.
