

Basic Detail Report

Title Hitler's Underground Shelter

Date 1945

Primary Maker Thomas F. Oakes

Description Black and white photograph by Thomas F. Oakes, above-ground view of the rear entrance to the Führerbunker complex, Hitler's final headquarters and site of his suicide. The photograph features a view of the emergency exit in the left background; the cone-shaped structure on the right served as a bomb shelter for the guards and as a ventilation shaft.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions: $2 \frac{7}{16} \times 2 \frac{1}{2}$ in. (6.2×6.4 cm)