The National Association for Multicultural Education Connecticut Chapter (CT-NAME)

History

The Connecticut Chapter of the National Association for Multicultural Education (CT-NAME) was founded in 1997. We have accomplished a lot in our young existence and encourage you to join with us. We are PK-12 and higher education teachers, administrators, school board members, parents, students, and community activists--working for educational equity/excellence and social justice in America.

Some Past Activities

- For the past 6 years, CT-NAME has co-sponsored the Annual Connecticut Multicultural Conference. This conference draws about 500 educators each year and has attracted many nationally renowned speakers including Carl Grant (past president of NAME), Louise Derman-Sparks, Donna Gollnick, Sonia Nieto, Jeannie Oakes, Valerie Pang, Christine Sleeter, and Beverly Daniel Tatum.

Other activities, which were free of charge for CT-NAME members and their families, include:

- Re-enactment of the Amistad Trial—"Setting the Record Straight"—at Old State House in Hartford
- Tour of the Amistad plus meeting with Captain Bill Pinkney and exploration of Mystic Village Seaport
