Basic Detail Report

Title Molly Blakeslee Ives, Molly Ives, or Molly Blakeslee

Date about 1820

Primary Maker Dr. Samuel Broadbent

Medium Painting; oil on canvas in frame

Description Portrait painting of a woman, either Molly Ives or Molly Blakeslee. She has light brown hair, with ringlets framing her face, hair gathered in a bun, and what appears to be a large comb or other decorative item on the crown of her head. She is wearing a black dress, belted with a black belt and brass buckle, and a white double-layered lace ruff. She is wearing dangle earrings a ring, and a brooch. She is sitting in a chair holding a book in her left hand.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (height x width): 29 3/4 × 26in. (75.6 × 66cm)