

Basic Detail Report

Title Art Works in the Home of Jampa Tsondue and Kunga Choekyi

Date November 2013

Primary Maker Kunga Choekyi

Medium born digital images

Description CCHAP visit to the home of Jampa Tsondue and Kunga Choekyi to view art works displayed there in 2013. 2015.196.246.1: born digital image showing thangka made by Jampa's daughter Yangchen, created through his teaching her this art form in the Southern New England Traditional Arts Apprenticeship Program in 2011. Displayed in the family's meditation room.

2015.196.246.2-.5: born digital images showing cotton wall hanging embroidered with Buddhist symbols by Kunga Choekyi 2015.196.246.6-.8: born digital images showing butter sculptures with Buddhist symbols, displayed in the family's meditation room 2015.196.246.9: born digital image showing part of the family's meditation room with Tibetan Buddhist art works displayed, including a thangka painted by Jampa of Buddha Sakyamuni, a picture of His Holiness the Dalai Lama, lotus, figures of deities, butter sculptures made by Yeshe Dorjee, and offerings.

Basic Detail Report