Polish Cultural Club of Greater Hartford

The Polish Cultural Club of Greater Hartford, recognized as one of the premier clubs in the Polish Community in the United States, was established in 1976 to preserve and promote the history, culture and customs of Poland with other fellow Americans. Among the many activities of the club are:

- Presenting various programs featuring scholars, writers, composers and artists through lectures and concerts
- Awarding annual scholarships to undergraduate and graduate students
- Providing books on Polish history, culture and language through exhibits and donations to libraries and schools at all levels
- Sponsoring the annual SZOPKA Festival consisting of Polish crafts, foods and entertainment. The highlight is a contest where children of all ages and adults submit original creations of Kracovian mangers. The entries serve as the focal point of the event.
- Participating in various ethnic fairs and festivals
- Planning and participating in educational activities for Polish-American Heritage month in October
- Contributing to the annual "Festival of Trees and Traditions" at the Wadsworth Atheneum
- Supported through contributions the establishment of the first endowed chair of Polish and Polish-American Studies at Central Connecticut State University
- The Club is affiliated with the American Council for Polish Culture and participates in the Annual Convention. It is also a member of the Polish American Congress Connecticut Chapter.

A primary goal of the Club is to foster interest in the rich Polish culture with other Americans through regular monthly meetings and other activities. Members have embarked upon a course to share their ancestral heritage with a more global community.
