Basic Detail Report

Title Saddle Display

Date 1880-1925

Primary Maker Smith-Worthington Saddlery Company

Medium Photographic glass plate negative (dry process)

Description Glass photographic plate negative of six Smith-Worthington saddles on display. The saddles are all of the Western style and include all the accessories including stirrups, fenders, and billets. The saddles are displayed in two rows of three and include the following model numbers, [top row L-R] no. 526, no. X240, no. X1001, [bottom row L-R] no. 525, no. 524, and, no. 523. The display is constructed from metal pipes and rope hung in front of a plain curtain, a portion of the room behind the curtain is visible at left.

Dimensions Plate: 5 1/8 × 8 1/8in. (13 × 20.6cm)