

Basic Detail Report

Basic Detail Report

Title Air Corps Flight Suit

Date 1942

Primary Maker Rocco T. Capobianco

Medium machine stitched gabardine wool, ferrous metal zippers

Description Rocco Thomas Capobianco's WWII Army Air Corps uniform flight suit, size 42, type A-4, Drawing No. 30-732, A. C. Order No. 42-16473-P. Single-breasted coveralls type flying suit of olive drab gabardine, featuring a turn-down collar, vertical front zipper fastening from crotch to neck concealed by a press-stud fastened fly, integral fabric waistbelt with sliding metal buckle to fasten, two belt loops to the front waistband, a vertical opening to either side of the waist, an angled open patch pocket to the right chest and a large open bellows pocket to the right shin. The arm and leg cuffs are closed both by zippers and a press-studs.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (upper back length x shoulder span x inseam):

17 × 18 × 27in. (43.2 × 45.7 × 68.6cm)