

Basic Detail Report

Title George W. Cheney, Sr, and Unidentified Man on Horseback

Date 1916 - 1918

Primary Maker George Wells Cheney Sr.

Medium Photography; black and white photograph on paper

Description View of two men on horseback in a field of long grass and wildflowers. The man in front is George Wells Cheney, Sr. Both men appear to be wearing the same outfit, probably a uniform. They are wearing light colored pants, slightly darker colored shirts that have pockets on the front, and Stetson hats. This photograph was probably taken while George served with Troop B of the Connecticut Cavalry in the Mexican Border War (1916), or during his service with the 101st Machine Gun Battalion of the 26th Yankee Division during WWI.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (height x width): 3 5/8 × 4 7/8in. (9.2 × 12.4cm)