Primary Maker Colonel Louis Richmond Cheney

Medium Photography; black and white photograph on paper and cardstock

Description View of three men and two women sitting in two rows outdoors in a patch of grass. Louis Richmond Cheney (1859-1944) is sitting in the back row, next to an unidentified woman that could be his wife, Mary Alice Robinson (1856-1926). In the front row there is an unidentified man wearing a pair of pince-nez glasses. There is a hat sitting upside down on the ground by his feet. To his right is an unidentified woman and to the right of her is Frank Cheney, Jr., who is petting a dog. There are tall weeds and grasses in the background. The photograph is mounted on a thick piece of cardstock that is cream colored on the front and brown on the back.
