

Basic Detail Report

Title Man's Square Dance Shirt

Date c. 1970-2010

Primary Maker Ely Cattleman

Medium machine sewn synthetic fabric, metal, plastic

Basic Detail Report

Description (a) Man's western wear long sleeved square dancing shirt constructed of white polyester woven with a vertical damask-like stripe and snap closures. The shirt features a stylized yoke on the front and on the back, and two snap pockets, one on each side of the chest. The snap closures on the front placket, chest pockets, and at the wrists are constructed of metal and plastic, the plastic is designed to look like mother-of-pearl. (b) Red polyester neckerchief, and (c) metal neckerchief slide in the shape of a cowboy boot. This outfit was worn by David Amidon.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (a) Shirt; center back x shoulder span): $32 \frac{1}{2} \times 16 \frac{1}{2}$ in. (82.6×41.9 cm) Primary Dimensions (b) neckerchief length): $42 \frac{1}{2}$ in. (108 cm) Primary Dimensions (c) neckerchief slide h x w x d): $1 \frac{1}{2} \times 1 \times \frac{1}{2}$ in. ($3.8 \times 2.5 \times 1.3$ cm)