

Basic Detail Report

Title Essential Workers Mural, Corner of Case and Punch Brook Roads, Burlington

Date 2020 April 12

Primary Maker Molly Woods

Medium born digital photography

Description Two born digital photographs of a mural painted in support of essential workers during the COVID-19 Pandemic on a rock at the corner of Case Road and Punch Brook Road in Burlington. The rock was painted to support healthcare workers by Kevin Kryzwick. The artist's initials are painted on the side of the rock in image (2020.75.2). The left side of the rock features an American flag; a nurse or doctor in the center wearing a face mask; and the words, "THANK YOU!" on the right. Photographed on April 12, 2020.