Basic Detail Report

Title Service Stripes

Date 1917-1918

Primary Maker Philip Cheney

Medium wool, silk thread

Description A pair of service stripes, one for each six months spent overseas, and worn on the lower left sleeve. The stripes are wide "V" shaped and are blue surrounded by olive green. They were earned by Philip Cheney, who attained the rank of Captain during World War I.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 1 1/4 × 2in. (3.2 × 5.1 cm)