Basic Detail Report

Title Discharge Stripe

Date c. 1918

Primary Maker Philip Cheney

Medium wool

Description A red colored, wide "V" shaped discharge stripe that is worn on the lower left sleeve. Belonged to Philip Cheney (1878-1948), who attained the rank of Captain during World War I and was honorably discharged from service on December 13, 1918.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 1 3/4 × 2 5/8in. (4.4 × 6.7cm)