Basic Detail Report

Title Poster: The Pink Triangle: A Gay Community Holocaust Memorial,

June 24, 1976

Basic Detail Report

Date 1976 June 24

Medium paper, printed ink

Description Poster advertising an event titled, The Pink Triangle: A Gay Community Holocaust Memorial, held at The Metropolitan Community Church of Hartford on June 24, 1976. Printed black text on white paper: "PINK TRIANGLE / do you know what the pink triangle was? / it was the patch the nazis forced gay people / to wear in the concentration camps. / gays were rounded up in germany and the / occupied countries of europe and sent to / their deaths at dachau, auschwitz and / sachsenhausen. an estimated 250,000 / souls, victims of hate and oppression. / HOLOCAUST COMMEMORATION: AN EDUCATIONAL / PROGRAM IN TRIBUTE TO THE 250,000. SPONSORED BY / METROPOLITAN COMMUNITY CHURCH. OPEN TO ALL. / MEETING HOUSE -- 50 BLOOMFIELD AVENUE, HARTFORD. / THURSDAY JUNE 24, 1976 at 7:45 p.m."

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 17 × 11in. (43.2 × 27.9 cm)