Basic Detail Report

Title Interview with Robert Peck

Date 27 September 2025

Primary Maker Angelica Gajewski

Medium born digital audio file

Description Audio file of interview with Robert Peck. He was interviewed by Angelica Gajewski on Septeber 27, 2025 in Bridgeport, Connecticut. Robert Peck was interviewed as part of the Connecticut Museum of Culture and History's Community History Project discussing moments of change in hislife. Robert Peck, also known as “Hood Farmer Rob,” is a community farmer and lifelong resident of Bridgeport, Connecticut. In this interview, he shares several formative events from his life spanning from childhood to early adulthood that have sparked significant ethical, spiritual, and perspective transformations. Rob introduces topics of community, food, and inequality through these events and his introductions to them as a result of his geographical location and cultural environments. Peck’s reflections provide insight into general themes of community farming and agriculture's wider social impacts and specific details about Connecticut's urban farming spaces, its infrastructure, and policy.

Dimensions Duration: 44 Minutes, 52 Seconds