Title Brown House with Red Barn

Primary Maker Louis Grosvernor Frink

Medium Drawing; pencil, watercolor, and gouache on brown paper on cardboard

Description The drawing depicts a large, dark wooden house or barn with multiple windows and a chimney, enclosed by a stone wall and a white picket fence. Two pathways extend from the barn and its entrance toward a small red house nearby. On the reverse, Lou Frink illustrates a large red house with a gambrel roof, accompanied by three small white houses situated behind it. The shared color palette of the surrounding grass and the arrangement of the buildings suggest that both scenes from the recto and verso portray different properties on the same land.
