Basic Detail Report

Title Cummerbund

Date c. 1960-1970

Medium machine sewn cotton with ferrous metal buckle closure

Description Girl or young woman's cummerbund, sold by Henry Miller and worn by donor and her sister. Red, blue, and beige plaid cummerbund with two pleats and a ferrous metal buckle closure. The cummerbund was manufactured to be adjustable on both ends, the proper left strap has been hand stitched closed and is no longer adjustable. The reverse features a black lining with a label stitched on the proper right side, the label is white with blue embroidery reading, "MADE EXPRESSLY FOR / Henry Miller / HARTFORD".

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (length x height): 29 × 3 1/4in. (73.7 × 8.3cm)