Basic Detail Report

Title Cummerbund

Date c. 1960-1970

Medium machine sewn cotton and ferrous metal closure.

Description Girl or young woman's cummerbund, sold by Henry Miller, Hartford, and worn by donor and her sister. Dark blue, orange, and beige plaid cummerbund with two pleats and a ferrous metal buckle closure. The length of the cummerbund is adjustable. The reverse features a black lining with a label stitched on the proper right side, the label is white with blue embroidery reading, "Henry Miller / HARTFORD".

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (length x height): 30 × 3 1/4in. (76.2 × 8.3cm)